

UUFH is growing. Growth takes financial investment and support.

The Fair Share Giving Guide helps you to recognize where you might fit in. Your level of commitment to and involvement with the congregation should be considered along with your income when deciding your pledge amounts. Churches are almost entirely dependent on congregational giving. At UUFH, we anticipate 70% of our income will come from that year's pledges.

Our pledge goal this year is $240,000 to support a budget of $340,158. We are counting on EVERYONE to give something. And in these time, members and friends who have greater financial stability and abundance need to consider giving even more to create a supported ministry. And we need this community now more than ever!
